

Co-funded by the European Union

FINAL CONFERENCE

Bridging Generations: Leveraging Intergenerational Dialogue to Promote Active Aging and Enhance Students' Skills

4 DECEMBER 2024

VILLA MONDRAGONE, ROME (ITALY) AND ONLINE

Moderator: Nicola Filizola, garagErasmus co-founder and board member

09:30 Registration

10:00 Welcome and presentation of the conference programme

- Bianca Sulpasso, Delegate for Internationalisation, University of Rome Tor Vergata
- Francesca Dominici, Head of International research division, University of Rome Tor Vergata
- Fabrizio Bitetto, President and CEO, garagErasmus Foundation

10:15 Presentation of the results of the Digital Life Learning Project

- Fabrizio Bitetto, President and CEO, garagErasmus Foundation
- Nunzia Di Francesco, Project Officer, garagErasmus Foundation

10:35 Video testimonial on the potential and spill-over effects of intergenerational participation in associative, informal and non-formal learning contexts

- Antonella Cesari, Erasmus+ Adult Education Ambassador, EPAL Italia

10:45 FIRST SESSION – “Not old enough or too old? The role of social narratives in the construction of an imaginary connected to the ages of life”

- Francesca Dragotto, Associate professor, University of Rome Tor Vergata

11:00 SECOND SESSION – “Cerebral ageing: identifying strategies to delay and potentially reverse age-related cognitive decline”

- Barbara Rizzato, Neurologist, Tor Vergata Polyclinic Foundation

11:15 Coffee Break

11:45 THIRD SESSION

- Felice Lopane, Life Sciences Head, Assolombarda

12:00 DISCUSSION ROUND

- Francesca Dragotto, Associate professor, University of Rome Tor Vergata
- Barbara Rizzato, Neurologist, Tor Vergata Polyclinic Foundation
- Felice Lopane, Life Sciences Head, Assolombarda

12:20 DISCUSSION ROUND – “Digital Life Learning: a pioneering project for fostering intergenerational exchange”

- Student
- Older adult
- Project partner

12:50 Closing remarks